Chinmaya Vrindavan invites you to attend Swami Ishwarananda's discourses on Sundarakand from Sri Valmiki Ramayan

Talks on Sundarakand :
Sunday, April 25th thru Thursday,
April 29th, 2021
7:30pm – 9:00pm EST

Among the seven cantos of Valmiki Ramayan, Sundarakand is considered to be the most beautiful one. It depicts strength of the mighty Hanuman, the beauty of Lanka, the chastity of Sita, the divinity of Vibheeshana's devotion and many more.

Swamiji will be explaining selected portions from this kand in the 5 day lecture series.

Swami Ishwarananda is the Head Archarya of Chinmaya Mission, Los Angeles, one of the Directors of Chinmaya Mission West (CMW). An accomplished master of Vedantic philosophy, Swamiji is a popular spiritual and management speaker in the US. He is known for conveying with simplicity the universality of spiritual teachings. With humor and clarity, he guides the seekers of today to implement this wisdom in day-to-day living. Swamiji is also a very discerning author providing deep scriptural imports in well-known books including Conscious Living, Silent Search, Mukunda Mala, Dew Drops, Pathways to Peace, Guru Stotram and The Life of I.
